Local healthcare partners have opened their doors to Wallace State students...

... and there has never been a better time to roar through the door. The Registered Nurse apprenticeship program connects future healthcare heroes with fully paid training opportunities with local hospitals, clinics, agencies, and medical centers.

Apprentices earn a certificate in three semesters - or an associate's degree in five - while banking real-world experience with employers like Huntsville Hospital, Marshal Medical Centers, Barfield Health Care, Marshall Manor Nursing & Rehab, South Hampton Nursing & Rehab and Riverview Regional Medical Center. Nurses who complete the program either move directly into full-time careers with their hosts, OR enter a white-hot industry paying an average of $60,510 in Alabama.

Don't let the door close on this one-of-a-kind opportunity. Reserve your spot today for the Registered Nurse apprenticeship at Wallace State.

EARN WHILE YOU LEARN.

Get paid while you power up for an even bigger paycheck. With no tuition, textbook or equipment costs, apprentices can potentially graduate debt-free.

// We're happy to partner with Wallace on this.

We will pay for anything a student's scholarships and grants don't pay for, so all their expenses will be covered while they're in nursing school."
